

Genealogy Rocks!

National Genealogy Speaker Coming to Loveland

Larimer County Genealogical Society is pleased to announce 'Conference For A Cause'. Make plans to attend this once in a lifetime experience on November 14, 2015 at The Ranch in Loveland, CO. Presenting is nationally known speaker and co-host of PBS-TV's, Genealogy Roadshow, D. Joshua Taylor.

Two-thirds of the tax deductible proceeds from this conference is for two preservation projects: a local project sponsored by Friday's Council Tree Chapter of the DAR for repairing and preserving headstones in a local cemetery and a national project to preserve pension records from the War of 1812. Find out more and register at lcgsco.org. Conference topics are:

- New Tools and Ideas in Research: The field of genealogy is constantly changing and evolving.

Stacey Rehbein

D. Joshua Taylor

Learn technological developments (including gadgets and gizmos); newly discovered resources for genealogical research, and more.

- Successful Searching: Learn how to limit your search engine results to websites that will be beneficial to you without having to scroll through thousands of results! Strong emphasis is put on learning and using "Yippy," and other search engines.

- On and Off the Net: Uncover the best resources (both online and offline) for research by localities.

Highlights of this lecture include a look at the USGenWeb Project and the resources found in genealogical and historical societies.

- Beyond Belief: Learn how to find genealogical and historical societies, and get the most out of their records.

Learn what records are unique to historical societies that can further your research.

❖ Stacey Wallace Rehbein is the president, library genealogy volunteer, and instructor for Larimer County Genealogical Society. Visit our website (www.lcgsco.org) or our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/lcgsco) to learn more about genealogy and our many events.